

Arnegui Red

D.O.Ca. Rioja / Red

Arnegui red is made from Tempranillo and Garnacha. Both varieties originate from Rioja. The fresh floral notes of the Garnacha grapes, sourced from low yield vineyards, blend well with the ripe fruit of the Tempranillo grapes, resulting in a complex yet sweetly full-bodied wine.

REGION

Spain's most famous wine region is renowned for creating top quality wines with exceptional ageing ability. It lies in northern Spain, along the River Ebro from which the region's name derived. Elegance and poise is the hallmark of wines made here. Rioja's different soil types together with the use of modern and traditional growing practices allow winemakers to produce a wide range of wines with different personalities, although always within the framework of the Denominación de Origen Calificada (D.O.Ca.) regulations.

TASTING NOTES

ABOUT THIS WINE

"Very Good, Strong Recommendation: Dark cherries and earthy vegetation accentuate the nose. Piquant red fruit and dark roasted coffee beans create a juicy and earthy flavor profile. Supple and round in texture, it is smooth and light on the palate." Ultimate Wine Challenge 2015
