REGION

Like France's Vins de Pays, Vino de la Tierra de Castilla is a Spanish geographical indication for wines located in the autonomous region of Castile La Mancha. The limestone and argillaceous soils are at an altitude of 700 metres and rain fall is scarce.

TASTING NOTES

Pale yellow with golden reflections. Intense aromas of apple, peach, fennel and tropical fruits on the nose. A creamy softness with hints of stone fruit on the palate followed by a lovely, clean, fresh and sweet finish.

FOOD PAIRING

The perfect accompaniment to pasta dishes, sea food and soft cheeses.

TECHNICAL INFORMATION

Grapes are picked at their optimum ripeness to obtain a well-balanced wine with just the right levels of sweetness and acidity. The wine undergoes a short period of cold maceration that lasts for around 6 hours. Fermentation takes place at a controlled temperature of 16 °C in stainless steel tanks for up to 10-12 days. The process of aging on lees continues for a short period, resulting in an elegant, fresh and fruity wine.
