📍 REGION

Rias Baixas appellation covers the vineyards from a set of areas in Galicia, which have common physical conditions that identify and produce these characteristic wines. These lowlands near the sea are related to the lower stretches of river courses with a climate characterized by mild temperatures and a decrease of rainfall during the summer months.

🍷 TASTING NOTES

The wine is bright, pale lemon in colour with hints of apple green. Aromas of white flowers, hints of peaches and apricots lead to a fresh, fruity palate and an enjoyable finish.

🍽️ FOOD PAIRING

Perfect with seafood, grilled octopus (“pulpo” in Spanish), and other typical dishes based on seafood, oysters, or mussels.
