

D.O. Valdepeñas Viña Albali Gran Reserva

Inspired by the starry night, Félix Solís wanted to create a wine that reflected the joyful and lively spirit of the Spaniards. He named this wine Albali, after a star in the constellation Cassiopeia.

Viña Albali Gran Reserva is made from Tempranillo grapes, which are harvested from the best vineyards of our own wine estates. This wine ripens for a long time in the quiet of our cellar.

Regionen

The name Valdepeñas comes from the eponymous city of antiquity, which is situated in a sun-drenched river valley, dotted with small rock formations – Val de peñas (Valley of the Rocks). Located south of Castile-La Mancha in central Spain, this region is almost entirely enclosed by the growing areas of the denomination of origin La Mancha D.O. and borders the south with Andalusia. The climate is dominated by extremes, with temperatures ranging from up to 40°C in summer and down to -10°C in winter. The future of this denomination of origin lies in the hands of its own red wines, made from Tempranillo grapes, which are well-suited for aging and produce excellent Crianzas, Reservas and Gran Reservas.

Verkostungsnotizen

Deep ruby red with burgundy tones. Complex and elegant bouquet of ripe red fruits and a hint of leather, green pepper and spices. On the palate, balanced and expressive with round, first-class tannins. Good ripening potential, thanks to the exceptional structure of the tannins.

Speiseempfehlung

The ideal accompaniment for all types of meat, stews and mature cheese.

Technische Information

The fermentation is carried out at controlled temperature (26-28°C). With this method, maximum fruitiness and outstanding tannins are achieved. The wine ripens for at least 18 months in barrels and 3 to 6 years in the bottle.
