

D.O. Ribera del Duero Altos de Tamaron Tempranillo

Altos de Tamaron Tempranillo is made from this grape variety, also known as Tinta del País, carefully cultivated in carefully selected vineyards. These vineyards are located in the vicinity of Olmedillo de Roa, in the province of Burgos, the heart of Ribera del Duero. The region's clay and sandy soils give the grapes their characteristic minerality and firm structure.

Region

In the last 30 years, the Denominación de Origen Ribera del Duero has emerged to challenge the crown of Spain's greatest wine regions. Located in Spain's northern plateau, this region covers four Castile and León provinces – Burgos, Segovia, Soria and Valladolid. But, despite what its name may suggest, Ribera del Duero does not cover all of the villages along the River Duero. Ribera del Duero was granted its Denominación de Origen status in 1982 and today it has over 250 wineries and over 22,000 ha of vineyards. Most of Ribera del Duero's production is red wine and only a moderate amount of rosé is produced.

Tasting Notes

Deep cherry red with purple tones. On the nose, aromas of ripe blackberry and liquorice. The palate is silky and fruity with a long finish.

Food Pairing

A perfect companion to grilled and braised meats, casseroles and pasta with pesto sauce.

Technical Information

The grapes are carefully selected to undergo a pre-fermentation process for two days. Then they are fermented at 22 °C to ensure that the wine's optimum aromatic potential is obtained. This guarantees that the wine acquires its characteristic shade and polished tannins. The bottles are then aged in our cellar for 4 months.

Vino de la Tierra de Castilla y León Altos de Tamaron Tempranillo VTCYL

Altos de Tamaron, made from Tempranillo grapes, completes the range under the Protected Geographical Indication of Castilla y León.

These wines are popularly known as Vinos de la Tierra de Castilla y León and their production area is made up of all the municipalities of the Autonomous Community of Castilla y León.

They are balanced wines due to the ripening process of the grapes, exposed to the climate of the region with a great variation of temperatures between day and night.

Region

Like France's Vins de Pays, Vino de la Tierra de Castilla y León is a Spanish geographic indicator for wines produced at the autonomous region of Castile and León, on the northern Spanish plateau.
