

Vino de la Tierra de Castilla Diego de Almagro Tempranillo

To produce Diego de Almagro Tempranillo it is necessary to extract the optimum amount of tannin and fruit from the grapes by preserving their natural flavours and aromas. It is a living evidence that fruitiness can also have body.

Region

Like France's Vins de Pays, Vino de la Tierra de Castilla is a Spanish geographic indicator for wines from the autonomous region of Castilla-La Mancha. This is a region at an altitude of 700m covered with limestone and argillaceous soils that endure scarce rain falls.

SERVING TEMPERATURE
Best served chilled (7-9°C)

Tasting Notes

This is a bright yellow wine. It carries aromas of floral notes, pear and apple. Its palate is well-balanced with subtle herbs and citrus fruits touches.

Food Pairing

A perfect companion for steamed fish with vegetables, seafood, octopus, as well as for cold and warm soups.

Technical Information

This wine is made out of the best grapes. A number of techniques including cooled fermentation allow us to preserve the delicacy, youth and freshness of this variety. Before proper pressing, the run juice is macerated for 6-8 hours at a low temperature. The fermentation takes place at 14-16°C in stainless steel tanks, where the maximum freshness and aromas are extracted.

SERVING TEMPERATURE
Best served cold (8-10° C)

Tasting Notes

Bright and sparkling clean pink-red. Its nose is intense with inviting aromas of cherry and strawberry. The palate mirrors these aromas and is well balanced with a good structure, very refreshing and with a medium-long finish.

Food Pairing

A good companion to fish, seafood or gazpacho and salmorejo, and soups.

Technical Information

The ripening process of the grapes is strictly controlled while on the fields to determine the optimum harvesting moment that yields grapes with a perfect balance of sugar content and acidity. The grapes, that come from 25-30-year-old vineyards, undergo cold maceration with skins to give the must its characteristic rosé colour. Fermentation takes place at 16-18 °C for 10 days, resulting in a light, clean and fruity wine.

Diego de Almagro Crianza

Diego de Almagro Crianza is made exclusively from Tempranillo grapes and is aged according to the guidelines for a wine with a Crianza status.

Region

Valdepeñas takes its name from the ancient city by the same name, that lies on a sun-baked river valley dotted by small rocky formations (Val-de-peñas – Valley of Rocks). Located in the South of Castilla-La Mancha in central Spain. It experiences extreme weather conditions, with temperatures reaching up to over 40 °C in the summer and dropping to as low as -10 °C in the winter. The future of this Denominación de Origen lays with its red wines made from Tempranillo; a grape variety that enjoys the ability to age well as crianza, reserva and gran reserva.

SERVING TEMPERATURE
Ideally, it should be served at around 16-17° C

Tasting Notes

Intense ruby red. Deep and complex aromas of luscious ripe red fruits, oak and spices. Pleasant and soft on the palate with a good tannic expression and a long finish.

Food Pairing

Great with lamb and perfect with tapas.

Technical Information

The grapes are regularly pumped over during fermentation in controlled temperatures in order to attain elegant tannins and the typical aromas of red fruits. The wine is aged in American oak barrels for 6 months and 2 to 3 years in bottle; above and beyond the requirements for regional Crianza status.

Tasting Notes

This wine is a brilliant cherry red in colour. This wine exhibits a powerfully long and consistent aroma, characterised by vanilla, chocolate, spices and jammy fruits. On the palate it is full-bodied, complex and elegant with well-structured tannins and a long smooth finish.

Food Pairing

A versatile wine that is an ideal match with grilled meat, poultry, game and Serrano ham and Manchego cheese.

Technical Information

Through gentle maceration, expressive tannic compounds are optimised. Following fermentation at a controlled temperature the wine is aged in American oak barrels for twelve months. It then rests quietly in bottle for another two to three years to ensure a complete harmonised maturation is achieved.
