

Varietal Wine

Peñasol White Semi Sweet Prisma

Peñasol White Prisma takes its name from the place where it has been elaborated: the sunny Valley of the Rocks, the ancient name of Valdepeñas, by the river Jabalon's banks. The wine is made from Airén, the indigenous grape from Castilla-La Mancha.

Region

The largest vineyard in the world is located on the central plateau of the Iberian Peninsula. Varietal wines are made with one type of grape. Airén and Tempranillo are the most characteristic grapes from this area, while other non-native grape varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Merlot, Viura, Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay have excellent results due to the climate and terrain in this region.

Tasting Notes

This wine stands out for its light, fruity yellow. Its flavor is very nice on the palate.

Food Pairing

This wine is ideal to accompany fish, salads and creams.

Technical Information

The best grapes are selected to produce a sweeter wine. Modern wine making techniques are employed to produce a delicate wine. The fermentation is then stopped by cooling down at the right moment.
