Viña Albali Frizzante 5.5 Verdejo

Viña Albali Frizzante is an aromatic beverage, sweet and very light.It is made using Verdejo grapes. The white variety is made from the Verdejo grape, known for its high natural acidity, which imparts freshness and balance along with distinctive fruity aromas. The relatively low natural sugar content of Verdejo contributes to the lower alcohol level, adding a subtle sweetness.

Region

The area of Castilla-La Mancha, located in the central plateau of the Iberian Peninsula, is the world's largest vineyard. Varietal wines, grape juice and sangrias are produced in this vast wine region. Airen and Tempranillo are the most typical grapes from this area.

Tasting Notes

A perfect blend of alcohol, acidity, and sweetness is achieved through natural fermentation, giving the wine a fruity, sweet, and refreshing character with a light fizz and low alcohol content.

Food Pairing

Viña Albail Frizzante is an excellent companion for any aperitif or light dinner, enhancing the dining experience with their refreshing and versatile profiles.

Technical Information

The Verdejo grapes are harvested at dawn in early October. Cool night temperatures allow the grapes to retain their wonderful aromatic nature. After a gentle pressing, it is fermented at a controlled temperature (below 13 ºC) to preserve its freshness and fruity character.
