📍 REGION

In the last 30 years, D.O. Ribera del Duero has emerged to challenge for the crown of Spain's greatest wine region. Located in Spain's northern plateau, it covers four of Castilla y León's provinces – Burgos, Segovia, Soria and Valladolid. But, unlike its name-sake, it does not cover all of the River Duero that unites more than 100 villages. Ribera del Duero was granted its D.O. in 1982. Today it has over 250 wineries and over 22,000 ha of vines. Most of Ribera del Duero's production is red with only a modest quantity of rosado produced. No white wines are allowed under the D.O. yet, but they will be allowed soon. The region is characterised by a largely flat, rocky terrain.

🍷 TASTING NOTES

Powerfully bright crimson in colour with purple hues. A fruity fragrance with aromas of ripe cherries, cassis and plums, paired with sweet spices, licquorice and toasted coffee beans. On the palate the wine is fresh and juicy with well-integrated, tannins and acidity. A lovely fruity finish with fine spicy notes.

🍴 FOOD PAIRING

A perfect accompaniment to lamb chops, pies, medium matured hard cheeses such as Manchego or old Gouda) and dates wrapped in bacon.

i TECHNICAL INFORMATION

The grapes are carefully selected before embarking on a further 2-day maceration process and fermented at a controlled temperature (23-25 °C) to ensure the optimum aromatic potential. Finally the wine is aged for 6 months in American oak barrels before bottling. The bottles are then aged for 6 months.
